This matter is before the court on the defendant's Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [26]. Counsel needs additional time to complete plea documents. Based on the statements made in Defendant's motion, the court finds the Defendant has shown good cause for the continuance.

IT IS ORDERED that the Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [32] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial, now set for November 15, 2022, is continued to December 13, 2022.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and December 13, 2022, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. No further continuances will be granted without a hearing before the undersigned magistrate judge.
4. The Final Trial Order [30] is denied as moot.

DATED: November 8, 2022
